WINES BY THE GLASS

SPARKLING

NV Lamberti Prosecco

Veneto, Italy

This is a very lively and effervescent prosecco. It has lovely green apple characters along with a hint of stone fruit. Crisp, fresh and delicious and a lively and exciting match to the chilli and lime king prawns.

150ml /bottle

9 / 45

NV Louis Bouillot 'Perle de Vigne'

13.5/60

Cremant de Bourgogne, France

No it's not champagne but it is a particularly impressive French sparkling wine. Made predominantly from Pinot noir and chardonnay from Bourgogne, the wine is fresh and zesty but has a lovely creaminess on the nose and palate. A superb aperitif or great with the charcuterie, scallop ceviche or natural oysters.

SLIGHTLY SPARKLING AND A LITTLE SWEET

2014 Symphony Serenade Moscato

10/45

Granite Belt, QLD

This sensational muscat is made in the Northern Italian Asti style which combines slight fizz with sensual sweetness. Amongst all those aromatics and delicate florals there is real backbone and spine. Celebrate Life!

WHITE WINES

2015 El Coto Blanco

8.5/37

Rioja, Spain

This wine is great. The grape is Viura which is something we see very little of on these shores. Candied pear, hints of honey and lip smacking freshness, this wine has wonderful balance with exceptional texture and length. Lovely with seafood chowder.

2016 Opawa Sauvignon Blanc

12/55

Marlborough, NZ

This is a fabulous example of a Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc. Nothing more need be said!

2016 Barringwood Estate Schönburger,

13.5/60

Barrington, Tasmania

Delicious little Tasmanian. Schönburger is a very little known grape varietal of German origin and is tough enough to endure the Tassie winters. Very pretty floral notes on the nose with a hint of musk. A very slight up front sweetness but finishes clean and fresh.

2017 Cullen, 'Dancing in the Sun'

SB, S, V

12.5/55

Margaret River, WA

In the manner of all things Cullen, this wine is utterly delicious. Grown on the fully bio-dynamic and organic vineyard this blend of Sauvignon Blanc (76%), Semillon (22%) and a little touch of Verdelho creates a rich and texturally delightful wine that rolls around the palate with perfect weight and length. A delicious drop to accompany the Biggenden Apricot pork

2016 In Dreams Chardonnay

11/50

Yarra Valley, Victoria

A very well balanced chardonnay with a lovely harmony between buttery, nutty round and rich mouthfeel and clean crisp acidity. Try with the hazelnut butter scallops, seafood chowder, Moreton Bay bugs and if it's local Barramundi today, chances are they will pair wonderfully.

ROSE

2016 Triennes IGP Méditerranée

10/45

Cotes du Provence, France

With a bouquet of Strawberries, White Flowers and hints of Vanilla and a palate that is pure harmony and elegance in a glass with each variety working to create a seamless experience studded with flavours of cherries and raspberries. This is classic Provencal Rosé. The Perfect accompaniment to a sunny summer afternoon or the fig and walnut risotto.

RED WINES

2015 Don Ramon, Grenache Tempranillo

9/40

Campo de Borja, Spain

A bit of a Jekyll and Hyde wine. Initially giving the impression of being light to medium bodied then suddenly reveals a quite powerful and rich character.

Incredibly versatile food wine but couldn't go past slowly working through a charcuterie board with at least one glass of this little fellow.

2016 Cape Barren 'Native Goose' GSM

12.5 /55

McLaren Vale, South Australia

This wine is a great example of why GSM's are so popular. The sweet berry notes from the Grenache, the power and broodiness of shiraz and the spicy, earthy notes from the Mouvedre create a supple, rich and luscious this wine. Bold and vibrant, perfect with Cape Byron Eye fillet, and a tremendous side kick to the cheese board.

2014 Smith & Hooper Merlot

10/45

Wrattonbully, S.A

Quite and earthy and savoury merlot with the dark fruits present but not the whole story of the wine. The palate is rich and savoury, velvety in texture and spicy on the finish. A good red which is superb with our beef medallions and blue cheese sauce

2016 Quartier by Port Phillip Estate, Pinot Noir

13.5/60

Mornington Peninsula, Victoria

A sophisticated little Mornington Peninsula Pinot Noir. Vibrant raspberry and red cherry notes on the nose accompanied by a dark spiciness. The red cherry is present on the palate along with a wonderful brambly character. Lovely fine tannins offering a very pleasing mouthfeel and length. Yep, of course we would recommend confit duck leg with this little wine

2015 Jim Barry "Lodge Hill" Shiraz

12.5/55

Clare Vale, South Australia

The Lodge Hill vineyard is a masterstroke of the Jim Barry range of wines. Sends down a bath of chocolate infused blackberries with liquorice spice. A gorgeous rich South Australian shiraz.
