SPARKLING

150ml / bottle

2017 Veuve d'Argent Blanc de Blancs
Bourgogne, France

9 / 45

Fresh, light and playful this is like a prosecco for the Francophile. Pale and delicate with apple and pear notes. The perfect aperitif or a superb match to either ceviche or tempura scallops.

2017 Louis Bouillot 'Perle de Vigne'

Cremant de Bourgogne, France

13.5 / 60

No it's not champagne but it is a particularly impressive French sparkling wine. Made predominantly from Pinot noir and chardonnay from Bourgogne, the wine is fresh and zesty but has a lovely creaminess on the nose and palate. A superb aperitif or great with the charcuterie, scallop ceviche or natural oysters.

SLIGHTLY SPARKLING AND A LITTLE SWEET

2014 Symphony Serenade Moscato
Granite Belt, QLD

10 / 45

This sensational muscat is made in the Northern Italian Asti style which combines slight fizz with sensual sweetness. Amongst all those aromatics and delicate florals there is real backbone and spine. Celebrate Life!

WHITE WINES

2016 La Guardiense Fiano Sannio
Campania, Italy

10.5 / 50

Fiano is a very interesting little character. This is a great example of the many components coming together to balance weight and texture with freshness and a touch of minerality. Perfect with the cauliflower and ricotta stormata

2017 Opawa Sauvignon Blanc
Marlborough, NZ

12 / 55

This is a fabulous example of a Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc. Nothing more need be said!

2017 La Maschera, Pinot Grigio
Limestone Coast S.A

10.5 / 48

This wine is marvellously crisp and refreshing, yet has great texture and length. A charming and cleverly made grigio providing more than a hint of drinkability and an invitation to enjoy a sunny afternoon. Pop a little chicken and pork terrine on the table to enhance the moment.

2016 Barringwood Estate Schönburger.
Barrington, Tasmania

13.5 / 60

Delicious little Tasmanian. Schönburger is a very little known grape varietal of German origin and is tough enough to endure the Tassie winters. Very pretty floral notes on the nose with a hint of musk. A very slight up front sweetness but finishes clean and fresh.

2016 In Dreams Chardonnay
Yarra Valley, Victoria

11 / 50

A very well balanced chardonnay with a lovely harmony between buttery, nutty round and rich mouthfeel and clean crisp acidity. Try with the hazelnut butter scallops, seafood chowder, Moreton Bay bugs and if it's local Barramundi today, chances are they will pair wonderfully.

ROSE

2017 AIX Rosé

13.5 / 60

Cotes du Provence, France

We have decided to up the ante pouring this absolutely beautiful and premium rosé to see us through these stunning winter days and breathtaking sunsets. Crediting the words of the AIX team themselves, this wine is elegant, generous, tasty and the perfect wine to drink all day long.

RED WINES

2016 Don Ramon, Grenache Tempranillo
Campo de Borja, Spain

9 / 40

A bit of a Jekyll and Hyde wine. Initially giving the impression of being light to medium bodied then suddenly reveals a quite powerful and rich character. Incredibly versatile food wine but couldn't go past slowly working through a charcuterie board with at least one glass of this little fellow.

2016 Cape Barren 'Native Goose' GSM
McLaren Vale, South Australia

12.5 / 55

This wine is a great example of why GSM's are so popular. The sweet berry notes from the Grenache, the power and broodiness of shiraz and the spicy, earthy notes from the Mourvedre create a supple, rich and luscious this wine. Bold and vibrant, perfect with Cape Byron Eye fillet, and a tremendous side kick to the cheese board.

2014 Montalbero Piemonte Rosso DOC
Piemonte, Italy

13 / 60

A beauty of a wine. A blend 60% / 40% Barbera and Ruge this is a great medium bodied red with a savoury and earthy

2016 Palliser Estate, 'Pencarrow' Pinot Noir
Martinborough, NZ

12.5 / 55

A delightful Pinot Noir from Martinborough. Dark red berries and cherries, violets and herbs the nose is rich and luscious. Lovely fine tannins offering a very pleasing mouthfeel and length. Fruit driven enough that it is a delightful match to the Asian pork belly

2016 Penny's Hill 'Cracking Black' Shiraz
McLaren Vale, South Australia

11 / 50

We believe that this Shiraz punches well above it's weight displaying the generous, rich and mighty personality of shiraz coming from this region. Cherries and dark berries, bright and juicy and an every occasion sort of shiraz.
